TASTING NOTES

This is a full hit of flavour and texture, supple in the palate, creamy, rich, laden with pasty-textured nuttiness, vanilla licks and cinnamon spice. There's deep pear and ripe apple flavours too, and, importantly, a bright vein of acidity just tingling away inside it all. It feels decadent and yet well-balanced in all its opulence. It's quite something to sip on now and should yield interesting/good results with modest cellaring. It pushes sweetness/ripeness/hedonism a little out of balance, perhaps, if looking at it more technically, but so many will run to this for its generosity and complex delivery of wine.

WINE ANALYSIS

Alc/Vol: 13.8% Acidity: 5.3 PH: 3.64

VINTAGE CONDITIONS

The dry winter of 2018 forced an early spring and the buds were bursting earlier than usual. A good amount of welcome rain followed in mid spring encouraging rapid but balanced growth. The hot spell early in the year accelerated ripening, but the balance of cool Heathcote nights and hot days made for exceptional growing conditions. It was a vintage that truly defied the conditions and offered great depth and intensity.

WINEMAKING

Fruit: Co foot stomped then pressed slowly and gently. Settled for 24hrs then racked into stainless steel.

Fermentation: Spontaneous wild yeast in stainless steel. Once completed wine was transferred to old French oak for 8 months maturation.

Yeast: Wild yeast Fining: None
